- 5.1. We offer a wide range of services. Details of the Services will be set out in other parts of the Engagement Terms. We do not and will not provide you with any Service that is not expressly set out in the Engagement Terms.

- 5.2. We will decide which entity within the MourantGS Group will provide the Services. We may sub-contract any part of a Service in this way so long as we act in line with applicable laws and rules.

- 7.1. We do not give tax, financial, investment, commercial, accounting, legal or economic substance advice on any matter or generally. Our relationship with you creates more limited duties than those existing in advisory relationships.
- 7.2. Our Representatives may have discussions with or about you for information or other purposes while performing the Services. You cannot rely on those discussions as tax, financial, investment, commercial, accounting, legal or economic substance advice.
- 7.3. We are required by applicable laws and rules to understand the tax and commercial rationale for the Services being required but we do not have a duty of care to check if any tax or other professional advice taken by or about you remains complete and up to date. We accept no responsibility or liability for the consequences of that advice or the lack of it.

8. OUR AUTHORITY TO TAKE STEPS AND SEEK ADVICE

- 8.1. You authorise us to take any step that we decide is necessary or appropriate for you to provide the Services and meet the requirements of applicable laws and rules when we perform the Services. This general authority extends to actions that help to keep you in good standing.

- 8.2. We may instruct or appoint a third party including another Mourant Person to provide professional or other advice if we decide this is necessary or appropriate for us to continue to perform the Services. You must pay the costs of that third party.
- 8.3. Our ability to take steps and seek advice is a general authority given by you to us. We may exercise that authority in our discretion. This may include consulting with you where we consider that appropriate. Unless applicable laws and rules require otherwise, we are not under any duty to take any step or to seek advice.

9. YOUR INSTRUCTIONS

- 9.1. We may rely and act on information or any request, communication or instruction (whether written or not) given or purportedly given by:

(each a Proper Instruction).

- 9.3. We may communicate with you in writing and by phone, publication on our website, web-based software or online portals. It is likely many of our communications will be by email. You acknowledge that the use of email carries risks including payment fraud and cyber security risks. Confidentiality may be lost as a result.
- 9.4. We are not liable for any liability, loss, cost or expense incurred by you or any other person as a result of:
 - 9.4.1. any failure by us to meet the requirements of a Proper Instruction which is:
 - (a) not given to us in writing; or
 - (b) incomplete, ambiguous or contained errors;
 - 9.4.2. the time taken by us to act on a Proper Instruction, unless the delay is caused by our negligence;

 - 9.4.7. us acting in line with any Proper Instruction given to us by email in circumstances where the email account of the sender was accessed by a third party, "hacked", forged, copied or cloned so that the Proper Instruction is given by a person acting fraudulently who reasonably appeared to us to be you or a person authorised by you to communicate with us or your supplier.

- 9.5. You may send us a Proper Instruction or other document that is signed electronically. We will assume that your use of an electronic signature:
- 9.5.1. meets the requirements of any applicable laws and rules; and
- 9.5.2. does not impact the validity or enforceability of the underlying document.
- 9.6. If you are an entity incorporated in the BVI and you require registered office and resident agent services, you authorise and instruct us to act as your authorised representative and to give instructions to a third party service provider for and on your behalf. Any such instructions may be relied upon by that third party in relation to the Services.

10. SPECIFIC AUTHORITY

- 10.1. If:
- 10.1.1. you receive a demand to pay any sum including any tax, duty, fee or other imposition and payment has not yet been made;
- 10.1.2. we refuse, suspend, delay or defer the provision of any Service or the acceptance or implementation of any Proper Instruction; or
- 10.1.3. we receive a Proper Instruction which in our reasonable opinion:
- (a) is not sufficiently clear or precise;
- (b) may be against applicable laws or rules; or
- (c) may be inconsistent with any fiduciary or other duty owed by us or any other Mourant Person to you, then we may take any action on your behalf as we decide (acting reasonably). That includes proceeding in one or more of the ways described in Clause 10.2.

- 10.2. In the events described above, we (acting reasonably) may:
- 10.2.1. take no further action;
- 10.2.2. appropriate any of your assets under our control in or towards the satisfaction of any demand;
- 10.2.3. arrange for your dissolution, liquidation, winding up or striking off; and/or
- 10.2.4. (if the Services involve a Mourant Person acting as nominee, for example a nominee shareholder) transfer all or any shares or other interests held to:
- (a) any of your Connected Persons; or
- (b) any other person we decide (acting reasonably) is appropriate.
- 10.3. We are not liable for any liability, loss, cost or expense incurred by you or any other person due to us taking any action under this Clause 10 (Specific authority).

- 11.3. We may issue invoices as and when we decide it is appropriate to do so. Unless otherwise agreed with you, we will generally issue our invoices:
- 11.3.1. annually in advance; and
- 11.3.2. after incurring any additional fees or liabilities, losses, costs or expenses (if applicable).
- 11.4. We may be requested or required to do urgent work for you due to a change in applicable laws and rules. You authorise us in advance to charge the standard fee or hourly rate of the Mourant Person(s) doing that work.
- 11.5. We will not refund any of our fees or liabilities, losses, costs or expenses paid to us in advance.
- 11.6. If you fail to pay any sum due to us within 30 days of the invoice date, we may:
- 11.6.1. charge you interest on the outstanding sum at a rate of 1% per month (not compounded);
- 11.6.2. keep in our possession and control any of your documents, records or assets held by us until that invoice is paid. If we retain statutory books and records under this clause, we will not be under a duty to keep them up to date unless required to do so by applicable laws and rules; and/or
- 11.6.3. refuse, suspend, defer or delay the provision of any Service.
- 11.7. If you fail to pay any sum due to us within 90 days of the invoice date, we also reserve the right to instruct a debt collection business to seek recovery of the outstanding amount. There may be an additional liability, loss, cost or expense associated with that recovery which will be payable by you.
- 11.8. Unless otherwise agreed, all sterling payments over £200 made by us on your behalf will be paid by CHAPS. This incurs a standard CHAPS fee. The payment of that fee is your responsibility.

12. CHANGES TO OUR FEES

- 12.1. We have the right to increase our fees annually to reflect:
- 12.1.1. inflation. Any increase will be calculated in line with the most commonly used inflation index in our jurisdiction;
- 12.1.2. changes in applicable laws and rules that lead to material additional costs in providing the Services; and
- 12.1.3. any other factor we consider to be fair and reasonable.
- 12.2. We will give you notice of any annual change to our fees except that we may increase our fees annually to reflect inflation without notifying you in advance.
- 12.3. Our fees may be calculated in part based on a:
- 12.3.1. standard scale of fees which lists standard fees for certain Services and other administrative tasks in some of our jurisdictions (a Fee Schedule). We may change any Fee Schedule from time to time; and/or
- 12.3.2. time spent basis. This means that the fee is calculated using the hourly rates of the Representative involved. Our hourly rates:
- (a) vary depending on the experience and seniority of our personnel;
- (b) are reviewed at least annually; and
- (c) may change from time to time.

General Terms

- 12.4. We reserve the right to increase our standard hourly rates or make an additional charge on any matter where we are asked or required to do work which:
 - 12.4.1. has unusual complexity, urgency, value or importance;
 - 12.4.2. involves exceptional time spent, attendance or responsibility;
 - 12.4.3. is required due to your inaction or failure to act promptly;
 - 12.4.4. is outside the scope of the Engagement Terms; and/or
 - 12.4.5. conflicts with an assumption made by us in the Engagement Terms or in any fee proposal issued in relation to the Services.
- 12.5. Details of our current Fee Schedule (if any) and hourly rates are available on request.

13. MONEY YOU PAY TO US

- 13.1. We have the right to request advance payment of our fees and any liabilities, losses, costs or expenses to be incurred in providing any Service before we perform or continue to perform that Service.
- 13.2. We may set off or deduct any undisputed outstanding amount due from you to us:
 - 13.2.1. from any of your funds or assets under our control without your prior approval; and
 - 13.2.2. against any undisputed outstanding amount due from us to you.
- 13.3. We are not a bank. We do not provide a banking or money transfer service or general facility to hold money for any person. Despite this, we may:
 - 13.3.1. arrange on your behalf for a bank we choose (unless another choice of bank is agreed) to provide a bank account or other banking service to you; and/or
 - 13.3.2. in limited circumstances (such as initial settled funds and transaction proceeds held on a temporary basis only), hold money on your behalf in a general client account. You acknowledge money held in this manner may be pooled with money belonging to other clients so long as your money is separately identified as belonging to you.
- 13.4. If Clauses 13.3.1 or 13.3.2 apply, we are not under a duty to place your money in an interest bearing account.

- 13.7. If we lose contact with you for any reason and we do not receive a Proper Instruction relating to the disposition of any money held or received from you that we account for in our records as being owed to you and that we hold for a period of five years or more, we may pay the funds held to a charity of our choice subject to any contrary applicable laws or rules.

14. YOUR REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

- 14.1. Clause 14.2 below contains confirmations from you to us. These confirmations are known in law as representations and warranties. - 17.3. No Mourant Person is liable to you for any liability, loss, cost or expense, whether in contract, tort, breach of fiduciary duty or otherwise, that you may incur arising out of our provision of the Services unless it is caused by that Mourant Person's fraud, negligence or wilful misconduct.

- 17.5. In accordance with usual practice, we must notify our insurer at least annually about any potential claims against us. To allow us to do this, you must, to the extent reasonable and practicable in the circumstances, notify us of any claim you think you have against us under the Engagement Terms within 12 months of the date on which the circumstances giving rise to the purported claim occurred.

- 17.6. You must bring any claim against us within three years of the date when you were aware or could reasonably have been aware of the existence of that claim. You agree as a matter of contract that this is a reasonable restriction.

- 17.8. Our maximum liability, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of fiduciary duty or otherwise, arising out of our provision of the Services is limited in total to ten times the amount of fees actually paid to us by you or on your behalf during the 12 month period before the event giving rise to any claim. This liability cap does not apply if a claim under it is due to our fraud or wilful misconduct.

- 17.9.5. any act or omission of a director not provided to you by us; and
- 17.9.6. any reliance placed by a third party upon our provision of any Service or by any aspect of the work done by us being made available to that third party.
- 17.10.
