

MATRIX

Offshore private equity holding structures – a comparison

This matrix has been prepared to provide a comparison of the laws of the British Virgin Islands (BVI), the Cayman Islands, Guernsey and Jersey as at its date of publication. It is for general information only and is not intended to, and does not, constitute legal, financial or other advice upon which you may act or rely and does not constitute an offer to provide such advice. This matrix does not consider any economic substance requirements (if applicable)

| | BVI | Cayman ¹ | Guernsey | Jersey |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Usual structure for private equity deals | A BVI, Cayman, Guernsey or Jersey holding company (Topco , where equity will enter the structure) which owns another offshore intermediate holding company (Midco) which in turn owns the acquisition vehicle (Bidco) Debt typically enters the structure at Midco level Depending on the jurisdiction of the target asset, Midco and/or Bidco may be formed in a jurisdiction with a favourable tax treaty (eg Netherlands and Luxembourg) | | | |
| Principal legislation for companies | The BVI Business Companies Act (Revised 2020) The BVI Business Companies Regulations (Revised 2020) | The Companies Act (2022 Revision) | The Companies (Guernsey) Law 2008 | The Companies (Jersey) Law 1991 |
| Companies registry | The Registrar of Corporate Affairs | The Registrar of Companies | The Guernsey Registry | The Companies Registry |
| Incorporation | Shelf companies are not typically used Company names can be reserved Incorporation can take place within one day, if completed KYC is provided The law does not distinguish between public and private companies | Shelf companies are not typically used Company names can be reserved Companies can be incorporated within one day if express service is used and completed KYC is provided The law does not distinguish between public and private companies | Shelf companies are not available Company names can be reserved Incorporation can take place within one day (standard), or in some circumstances two hours (rapid) or, for a basic asset holding company with standard articles of incorporation, 15 minutes (special) provided that all requisite information, including completed KYC, is provided The law does not distinguish between public and private companies | Shelf companies are not available in Jersey due to the requirement to disclose trading activities and beneficial ownership Company names can be reserved Companies can be incorporated on a same day basis if express service is used and completed KYC is provided Public and private companies are available A company will be treated as public if it has more than 30 registered shareholders (excluding directors and employees) |

¹ This matrix refers to Cayman Islands exempted companies limited by shares

| | BVI | Cayman ¹ | Guernsey | Jersey |
|---|--|---|---|--|
| What is it? | A limited liability company is a body corporate with separate legal personality where its shareholders benefit from limited liability | | | |
| Constitutional documents | Memorandum and articles of association The memorandum and articles of association can be amended by a shareholder resolution This resolution requires the approval of a simple majority (or such higher percentage as is specified in the articles of association) of shareholders who, being entitled to do so, vote in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the company Directors also have certain rights to amend the memorandum and articles of association | Memorandum and articles of association The memorandum and articles of association can be amended by a special resolution This resolution requires the approval of a two thirds majority (or such higher majority as is specified in the articles of association) of shareholders who, being entitled to do so, vote in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the company | Memorandum and articles of incorporation The memorandum and articles of incorporation can be amended by a special resolution This resolution requires the approval of a 75 per cent of shareholders with voting rights (or such higher majority as is specified in the articles of incorporation) | Memorandum and articles of association The memorandum and articles of association can be amended by a special resolution This resolution requires the approval of a two thirds majority of shareholders with voting rights (or such higher majority as is specified in the articles of association) |
| Must key contracts be governed by local law? | No The memorandum and articles of association/incorporation will be governed by local law Other key contracts (investment and shareholders' agreements, share purchase agreements, facility and bond documentation) can (and usually will) be governed by foreign law (typically English or New York law) | | | |
| Which documents are publicly available? | Certificate of incorporation, memorandum and articles of association, the date of incorporation, the identity and address of its registered agent, the address of its registered office, any public security filings, plus a few other documents that may be elected or required to be filed in specific circumstances The identity of shareholders is not a matter of public record, unless the company voluntarily elects to file its register of shareholders with the Registrar of Corporate Affairs (which it must then keep up to date at the Registry) The register of directors is required to be filed with the Registrar of Corporate Affairs but it is not publicly available, unless the company voluntarily elects to make it so. A list of director names based on the register | The following information is open to inspection by the public for a fee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • name of the company • registration number • entity type • place and date of incorporation • registered office address • amount of capital and the number of shares into which it is divided • date of execution and filing of the memorandum of association • name and address of the initial subscribers to the memorandum and the number of shares taken by each • date of its financial year end • whether the company is active • names of the current directors (and, where applicable, current alternate directors) | Basic limited information is available from a public search (including registered office, date of incorporation, company status and economic activity code) Details of the directors and resident agent are available to purchase (statement of register) as are the certificate of incorporation, memorandum and articles of incorporation, special resolutions, annual validations plus a few other documents required to be filed in specific circumstances Confidential matters can be included in a shareholders' agreement, which should not need to be filed provided it is appropriately drafted | Certificate of incorporation, memorandum and articles of association, the date of incorporation, the address of its registered office, special resolutions, any public security filings, an entity profile including shareholder names and limited information regarding significant persons (for example, the company secretary and directors) such as their name, month, year of birth, nationality and correspondence address, plus a few other documents required to be filed in specific circumstances Confidential matters can be included in a shareholders agreement, which should not need to be filed provided it is appropriately drafted |

| | BVI | Cayman ¹ | Guernsey | Jersey |
|---|---|---|--|--|
| Which documents are publicly available? continued | of directors filed, however, is publicly available on request for a fee Changes to the register of directors are also required to be filed within 30 days of the change | | | |
| What other types of holding vehicle are available? | A wide variety of different types of company are available, including companies limited by guarantee, unlimited companies, restricted purpose companies and segregated portfolio companies In addition, other types of vehicle are available, including partnerships, limited partnerships, unit trusts and trusts | A wide variety of different types of company are available, including companies limited by guarantee, unlimited companies, limited duration companies and segregated portfolio companies In addition, other types of vehicle are available, including exempted limited partnerships, limited liability companies, unit trusts and trusts | A wide variety of different types of Guernsey company are available, including no par value companies, guarantee companies, unlimited liability companies, limited life companies, protected cell companies and incorporated cell companies In addition other types of vehicle are available, including partnerships, limited partnerships, limited liability partnerships, unit trusts, trusts and foundations | A wide variety of different types of Jersey company are available, including no par value companies, guarantee companies, unlimited liability companies, limited life companies, protected cell companies and incorporated cell companies In addition other types of vehicle are available, including partnerships, various types of limited partnership, limited liability partnerships, unit trusts, trusts and foundations |
| Registered office | Must be in the BVI | Must be in Cayman | Must be in Guernsey | Must be in Jersey |
| Annual returns | Save for certain exceptions, an annual return must be filed with the company's registered agent within nine months of the end of the company's financial year and retained by the company's registered agent for at least 5 years from the date it ceases to act as registered agent of the company Annual government fees must be paid to the Registrar of Corporate Affairs in order to remain in good standing | An annual return must be filed with the Registrar of Companies (together with an annual fee – see below) | Annual validations must be filed with the Guernsey Registry (together with an annual fee – see below) | An annual confirmation statement must be filed with the Jersey Financial Services Commission (JFSC) (together with an annual fee – see below) |
| Government fees | Incorporation and annual BVI government fees of US$550 each (if authorised to issue 50,000 shares or fewer) or US$1,350 each (if authorised to issue 50,000 shares or more) Additional fees may be charged in relation to applications to set up funds, carry out regulated activities etc Additional one off incorporation fees and then annual fees will be payable to the registered agent/registered office provider, | Minimum incorporation fee of US$733 (scaled by reference to authorised share capital) Minimum annual fee of US$854 (scaled by reference to authorised share capital) Additional fees may be charged, depending on nature of company and set up arrangements Annual fees will be payable to the registered agent/registered office provider, which will | Incorporation fee of £100 (within 24 hours), £350 (within two hours) or £750 (within 15 minutes) Annual validation fee starting at £250 Additional fees may be charged in relation to changes to company particulars, company document filing and applications to set up funds, carry out regulated activities etc Annual fees will be payable to the registered | Name reservation fee of £10 Incorporation fee of £165 (within five business days), £242 (within three business days), £305 (within two business days), £425 (within one business day) and £670 within two hours Annual confirmation filing fee, depending on the case, of £220 or £225 Additional fees may be charged in relation to applications to set up funds, carry out |

| | BVI | Cayman ¹ | Guernsey | Jersey |
|--|--|---|---|--|
| Government fees continued | which will be subject to commercial negotiation | be subject to commercial negotiation | agent/registered office provider, which will be subject to commercial negotiation | regulated activities etc Annual fees will be payable to the registered agent/registered office provider which will be subject to commercial negotiation |
| Directors and officers | Minimum of one director No nationality restrictions or local residency requirements Corporate directors are permitted Directors' duties are owed to the company (though a director of a subsidiary may (if permitted by the memorandum and articles) act in the best interests of the holding company even if that is not in the interests of the subsidiary) Statutory duties are imposed requiring the director to act honestly and in good faith and in what the director believes to be in the best interests of the company Common law fiduciary duties are equally applicable A company secretary is permitted but not required | Minimum of one director No nationality restrictions or local residency requirements Corporate directors are permitted Directors' duties are owed to the company Common law fiduciary duties are imposed requiring the directors to act in the best interests of the company, to avoid conflicts of interest etc A company secretary is permitted but not required | Minimum of one director No nationality restrictions or local residency requirements (assuming the entity is not regulated), though local directors are available, if required Corporate directors are permitted (except for companies engaged in regulated activities) Directors' duties are owed to the company Statutory and common law fiduciary duties are imposed requiring the director to act in the best interests of the company, to avoid conflicts of interest etc A company secretary is permitted but not required | Minimum of one director No nationality restrictions or local residency requirements (assuming the entity is not regulated), though local directors are available from regulated trust and corporate service providers, if required Corporate directors are permitted, but a corporate director must be regulated to act as a corporate director Directors' duties are owed to the company A statutory duty is imposed requiring the director to act in the best interests of the company Common law fiduciary duties are imposed eg to avoid conflicts of interest, etc A company secretary is required |
| Minimum number of shareholders | Companies must have at least one shareholder | | | |
| Board meetings | Board meetings do not have to be held locally Directors' resolutions can be passed in writing if permitted by the articles of association/incorporation | | | |
| Shareholder meetings | Do not have to be held in BVI No requirement to hold annual or other periodic shareholder meetings unless they are required by the articles of association Shareholder resolutions can be passed by written resolution if authorised by the articles of association The majority required to pass a written resolution can be specified in the articles of | Do not have to be held in Cayman Companies that do not conduct business within the Cayman Islands are not required to hold annual or other periodic shareholder meetings unless they are required by the articles of association Shareholder resolutions can be passed by unanimous written resolution if authorised by the articles of association | Do not have to be held in Guernsey The requirement to hold an annual general meeting may be waived by a waiver resolution of the members of the company, ie a majority of not less than 90 per cent Shareholder resolutions can be passed in writing The majority required to pass a resolution in writing is the same as is required at a meeting (a simple majority for an ordinary | Do not have to be held in Jersey No requirement to hold annual or other periodic shareholder meetings unless they are required by the articles of association Shareholder resolutions can be passed in writing unless prohibited by the articles of association The majority required to pass a resolution in writing is either all shareholders with voting rights or a lower majority specified in the |

| | BVI | Cayman ¹ | Guernsey | Jersey |
|--|---|---|---|---|
| Shareholder meetings continued | association | | resolution, 75 per cent for a special resolution, 90 per cent for a waiver resolution and 100 per cent for a unanimous resolution) | articles of association (though the majority can be no lower than two thirds for a special resolution) |
| Share capital | No concept of authorised share capital applicable to BVI companies incorporated under the BVI Business Companies Act (Revised 2020) Instead a BVI business company is authorised to issue a maximum number of shares Bearer shares are not permitted Treasury shares are permitted Shares can be denominated in any currency and amount and a company can have shares in different currencies and denominations Any class of share may be issued (including ordinary, common, preference, preferred, convertible and deferred shares) The shares can have such economic, voting and other rights as are determined by the parties (with very few restrictions) | No minimum or maximum authorised or paid up share capital Bearer shares are not permitted Treasury shares are permitted Shares can be denominated in any currency and amount and a company can have shares in different currencies and denominations Any class of share may be issued (including ordinary, common, preference, preferred, convertible and deferred shares) The shares can have such economic, voting and other rights as are determined by the parties (with very few restrictions) | No minimum or maximum authorised or paid up share capital Bearer shares are not permitted Treasury shares are permitted Shares can be denominated in any currency and amount and a company can have shares in different currencies and denominations Any class of share may be issued (including ordinary, common, preference, preferred, convertible and deferred shares) The shares can have such economic, voting and other rights as are determined by the parties (with very few restrictions) | No minimum or maximum authorised or paid up share capital Bearer shares are not permitted Treasury shares are permitted Shares can be denominated in any currency and amount and a company can have shares in different currencies and denominations Any class of share may be issued (including ordinary, common, preference, preferred, convertible and deferred shares) The shares can have such economic, voting and other rights as are determined by the parties (with very few restrictions) |
| Employee share schemes | Companies are able to issue shares in accordance with any common form of employee share scheme The rules of the scheme need not be governed by local law Shares held by employees can either be held directly or indirectly via a company (often called a Manco) or an employee benefit trust The company may loan money to an employee or an employee benefit trust to assist them in acquiring shares (subject to any contractual restrictions or restrictions in the articles of association/incorporation) | | | |
| Financial assistance | No statutory restrictions on financial assistance | | | |
| How is a company funded? | The company can be funded by a variety of means including cash (where an investor will subscribe for shares using cash), assets (where an investor will contribute assets to the company in return for shares), loans and/or the provision of services | | | |
| How does a company return cash or assets to its investors? | A company can return cash or assets to its investors by a variety of means, including distributions, share redemptions and repurchases | A company can return cash or assets to its investors by a variety of means, including distributions, share redemptions, repurchases and court approved reductions | A company can return cash or assets to its investors by a variety of means, including distributions, share redemptions, share buy-backs and reductions of capital | A company can return cash or assets to its investors by a variety of means, including distributions, share redemptions, share buybacks and reductions of capital |

| | BVI | Cayman ¹ | Guernsey | Jersey |
|---|--|---|---|--|
| How does a company return cash or assets to its investors? continued | Distributions may be paid from any source subject to satisfaction of a solvency test (both cash flow and balance sheet) Any additional requirements and/or restrictions can be built into the articles of association | of capital Distributions may be paid out of profits or share premium subject to a cash flow solvency test Subject to satisfying the cash flow solvency test, shares may be redeemed or repurchased out of share capital, profits, the share premium account or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for the purposes of the repurchase or redemption Any additional requirements and/or restrictions can be built into the articles of association | The directors will be required to resolve that the company satisfies a cash flow and balance sheet based solvency test (other than for a court sanctioned reduction of capital), but otherwise there are limited restrictions under Guernsey law Any requirements and/or restrictions can be built into the articles of incorporation | The directors will be required to make a cash flow based solvency statement (other than for a court sanctioned reduction of capital), but otherwise there are limited restrictions under Jersey law Any requirements and/or restrictions can be built into the articles of association |
| Can it borrow, give guarantees and provide security over its assets? | Yes Each of a BVI, Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey company has unlimited corporate capacity Restrictions can be incorporated in its articles of association/incorporation, if so desired | | | |
| Can an investor grant security over its shares? | Yes A shareholder can grant security over its shares in a BVI company subject to any contractual restrictions or restrictions in its articles of association It is possible to make public filings of annotated registers of shareholders with the Registrar of Corporate Affairs | Yes A shareholder can grant security over its shares in a Cayman Islands company subject to any contractual restrictions or restrictions in its articles of association There is no public register of security in the Cayman Islands | Yes A shareholder can grant security over its shares in a company in accordance with the Security Interests (Guernsey) Law, 1993, subject to any contractual restrictions or restrictions in the company's articles of incorporation There is no register of security in Guernsey | Yes A shareholder can grant security over its shares in a company in accordance with the Security Interests (Jersey) Law 2012, subject to any contractual restrictions or restrictions in the company's articles of association Security granted under the Security Interests (Jersey) Law 2012 can be registered in Jersey |
| Does it have unlimited duration? | Yes Unless its memorandum or articles of association/incorporation provide otherwise | | | |

| | BVI | Cayman ¹ | Guernsey | Jersey |
|--|---|---|---|--|
| Accounting and audit requirements | Companies must maintain accounting records Such accounting records need not be made publicly available Audited financial statements are not required unless the company is subject to regulation by the BVI Financial Services Commission (BVI FSC) Companies must file with their registered agent an annual financial return. These are not publicly available but will be provided by the registered agent to the BVI FSC or any other competent authority on request | Companies must maintain accounting records Such accounting records need not be made publicly available Audited financial statements are not required unless the company is subject to regulation by Cayman Islands Monetary Authority | Companies must maintain accounting records Such accounting records need not be made publicly available Financial statements must be produced, covering a maximum period of 18 months Audited financial statements are required unless the company is exempted by a waiver resolution of the members of the company, ie a majority of not less than 90 per cent | Companies must maintain accounting records Such accounting records need not be made publicly available Financial statements must be produced, covering a maximum period of 18 months Only public companies or those subject to regulation by the JFSC must file accounts Audited financial statements are not required unless the company is a public company or is regulated by the JFSC |
| Confidentiality | The identity of shareholders is not a matter of public record, unless the company voluntarily elects to make a public filing of its register of shareholders with the Registrar of Corporate Affairs (which it must then keep up to date at the Registry) A list of director names based on the register of directors filed with the Registrar of Corporate Affairs is publicly available on request for a fee The BVI has entered into numerous tax information exchange agreements but it does not allow 'fishing expeditions' | The identity of shareholders is not a matter of public record except that the name and address of the initial subscribers to a company's memorandum of association and the number of shares taken by each subscriber are publicly available In practice, the initial subscriber to a company's memorandum of association is typically a third party service provider Any person may, for a fee, inspect the list of the names of a company's current directors (and, where applicable, current alternate directors) maintained by the Registrar of Companies | The identity of registered shareholders is not publicly available A process, including a court application, may enable a person who has a proper purpose to inspect the register of members However, the register of members holding redeemable or non-voting shares is not subject to this application process Generally redeemable shares are used to preserve confidentiality though nominee shareholders may also be used Guernsey has entered into numerous tax information exchange agreements but it does not allow 'fishing expeditions' | A company's annual confirmation statement verifies to the JFSC that the beneficial owner information, significant person information and any other prescribed information provided to the JFSC in relation to the company is accurate. Subject to exceptions, certain significant person information (relating to directors and company secretary) and shareholder details are publicly available on payment of a nominal fee to the JFSC, in an entity profile. However, information regarding the identity of beneficial owners is not currently available to the public, unless the beneficial owner is a director, company secretary or direct shareholder Jersey has entered into numerous tax information exchange agreements and shares information with law enforcement agencies in line with the Egmont Principles and Charter but it does not allow 'fishing expeditions' Nominee shareholders, provided by regulated trust and corporate service providers, are commonly used to preserve confidentiality of shareholder details |

| | BVI | Cayman ¹ | Guernsey | Jersey |
|--------------------------------------|--|--|--|--|
| Exit options | A variety of methods are available to effect a sale, including a traditional share purchase transaction, a statutory merger, a mandatory 'squeeze out' and a scheme of arrangement BVI, Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey companies are regularly used for IPOs and have been listed on most of the world's major stock exchanges, including the London Stock Exchange, the New York Stock Exchange, NASDAQ, the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, Euronext and the Toronto Stock Exchange | | | |
| How is it wound up/dissolved? | Voluntary liquidation (if the company is solvent) This process must be conducted by a voluntary liquidator | Voluntary liquidation (if the company is solvent) The process must be conducted by a voluntary liquidator A voluntary strike off process is also available | Voluntary winding up (if the company is solvent) This process can be conducted by the directors or by a liquidator A voluntary strike off process is also available | Summary winding up (if the company is solvent) This process can be conducted by the directors or by a liquidator |
| Tax | The BVI has no income tax, corporation tax, capital gains tax, inheritance tax, gift tax, wealth tax or any other form of direct taxation or withholding There are no currency exchange controls in the BVI | Cayman has no income tax, corporation tax, capital gains tax, inheritance tax, gift tax, wealth tax or any other form of direct taxation or withholding There are no currency exchange controls in Cayman | Guernsey has a standard zero per cent rate of corporate tax for companies that are tax resident in Guernsey (subject to limited exceptions) Guernsey has no withholding tax, capital gains tax, inheritance tax, gift tax, or wealth tax There are no currency exchange controls in Guernsey | Jersey has a standard zero per cent rate of corporate tax for companies that are tax resident in Jersey (subject to limited exceptions) Jersey has no withholding tax, capital gains tax, inheritance tax, gift tax, or wealth tax There are no currency exchange controls in Jersey |
| AML/CFT | BVI, Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey have strict AML/CFT regulations and high regulatory standards Successive independent reports, including by the IMF, have recognised the BVI, Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey as leaders in the field of compliance and governance | | | |
| FATCA compliance | In June 2014 the BVI and the US signed an intergovernmental agreement to improve international tax compliance and to implement FATCA based on the model 1(b) IGA As a result, the withholding tax and account closure requirements will not apply, apart from in circumstances of unresolved significant non-compliance Under the terms of the agreement, financial institutions will provide the BVI International Tax Authority (BVI ITA) with the required information The BVI ITA will then forward that information to the Competent Authority in the USA | In November 2013 the Cayman Islands and the US signed an agreement to improve international tax compliance and to implement FATCA based on the model 1(b) IGA The Cayman Islands have also agreed to the automatic exchange of financial information on the basis of the standard published by the OECD (CRS) To implement FATCA and CRS, the Cayman Islands have adopted regulations (AEOI Regulations) As a result, the withholding tax and account closure requirements will not apply, apart from in circumstances of unresolved significant non-compliance | In December 2013 Guernsey and the US signed an agreement to improve international tax compliance and to implement FATCA based on the model IGA As a result, the withholding tax and account closure requirements will not apply, apart from in circumstances of unresolved significant non-compliance Under the terms of the agreement, financial institutions will provide the Guernsey Director of Revenue Service with the required information The Director will then forward that information to the Competent Authority in the USA Guernsey has also agreed to the automatic | In December 2013 Jersey and the US signed an agreement to improve international tax compliance and to implement FATCA based on the model IGA As a result, the withholding tax and account closure requirements will not apply, apart from in circumstances of unresolved significant non-compliance Under the terms of the agreement, financial institutions will provide the Jersey Comptroller of Taxes with the required information The Comptroller will then forward that information to the Competent Authority in the USA Jersey has also agreed to the automatic |

| | BVI | Cayman ¹ | Guernsey | Jersey |
|---|---|--|---|--|
| FATCA compliance continued | | Under the AEOI Regulations, financial institutions will provide the Cayman Islands Tax Information Authority (Cayman TIA) with the required information The Cayman TIA will then forward that information to the Competent Authority in the USA and other foreign fiscal authorities | exchange of financial information on the basis of the standard published by the OECD (CRS) CRS has been implemented in Guernsey by the Income Tax (Approved International Agreements) (Implementation) (Common Reporting Standard) Regulations, 2015 which came into force on 1 December 2015 | exchange of financial information on the basis of the standard published by the OECD (CRS) CRS has been implemented in Jersey by the Taxation (Implementation) (International Tax Compliance) (Common Reporting Standard) (Jersey) Regulations 2015, which came into force on 1 January 2016 |
| Quality of legal profession, service providers and the courts | Very high Most lawyers have practised in London or another major international finance centre and many are dual- or multi-qualified The local courts commonly preside over large and complex international disputes The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in London is the court of final appeal | | | |
| What are the benefits of this particular jurisdiction? | The legal regimes in each of the BVI, Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey for private equity transactions are materially the same, with the result that the choice of jurisdiction is unlikely to be driven by particular laws The choice of jurisdiction will generally come down to other factors such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Investor preference - investors will often prefer to invest via certain jurisdictions, due to perceptions of and/or existing relationships within certain jurisdictions (eg Asian and Russian investors will often be more familiar with BVI, US investors will often be more familiar with BVI and Cayman; European investors will often be more familiar with Jersey and Guernsey) • Sponsor preference - if the sponsor has existing operations and/or relationships in a particular jurisdiction • Sector - certain jurisdictions are more closely associated with certain sectors (such as Guernsey with gaming and Jersey with UK real estate) • Tax - each jurisdiction is tax neutral so they should all offer the same benefit in this respect | | | |

Contacts

To find out more, please get in touch with your usual Maurant contact, or alternatively, a full list of contacts can be found here